

Artifact: Research Question 2: Hurricane Katrina Aftermath

Course: History 172

Goal: Information Literacy

For Information Literacy I choose my Research Question 2 about the Aftermath of Hurricane Katrina, from History 172. I decided to choose this paper because in history courses. I had to find two primary sources and two secondary sources and interpret our Research Question. In this assignment, I brainstorm bunch of questions and ended up with an important question that our world has always ask. What was the impact of the government's response to the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina? This research question was important because citizens always thought that our government didn't prepare are help poor citizen in a full-blown crisis. However, after constructing my thesis also known as my overall question. I than found primary and secondary sources that describe the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina and I intercept on why that individual source was good for my research question. Thus, information literacy was used in this assignment because I was able to use our database and analysis the source and describe if it a primary are secondary sources.

ΦΘK Tips

Strengths:

- Several reliable sources are used throughout the paper
- Sources providing a variety of perspectives are used
- Source page formatting is appropriate
- Both primary and secondary sources; the writer can identify these.

Opportunities:

- The writer should use internal source citations